ALEXANDRIA TAXES KEPT ON FLAT RATE

Council Declines to Allow Discounts on Early Payments.

R E Knight & See, and Seneral laws committee of city council at a meeting tonight made an adverse report on the resolution of Councilman Lawler providing for a discount of five per cent on city taxes paid by December 1, and its report was adopted. Councilman Burke explained that one of the reasons for giving a discount in July was to induce prompt payment, as at about that season of the year the city has many obligations to tigset.

The election of H. Noel Garner as corporation attorney, by the people Nowember 7, to fill the unexpired term of the late Samuel P. Fisher, was ratified. His term will extend until January 1, 1918. The finance and fire committees reported as favorable.
